Quitday.org Scholarship

Award: $300 - $2000

Deadline: May 31, 2016

Scholarship Description: Every year, we select three winners in the essay contest. The winners will receive awards toward their tuition at their respective colleges and universities. The winning applicants for first, second and third place receive scholarships in the amounts of $2,000, $700 and $300, respectively. The scholarship awards may only be used to pay for college tuition and/or education-related expenses. There are no costs associated with submitting an application for this scholarship.

Requirements:

Applicants must submit a typed essay (1,000–1,500 words) answering the following questions:

- Why do you see smoking as a problem for individuals and society?
- What is the best way for society to overcome the issue of smoking, and why?
- What would a smoke-free world look like, and how would it differ from the world today?
- What message do you have for current smokers?

Application Website: <https://quitday.org/scholarship/>

About Benefactor: Smoking has killed more people than every American war combined, and more than 10 times over. Many victims of tobacco addiction feel as though they are fighting a war themselves. With the QuitDay.org Scholarship, we want to challenge current and prospective college students to share their story on how we can make the world smoke-free.
